If you do NOT have brand guidelines, provide fonts (if not, we will decide for you)

If you do NOT have brand guidelines, provide desired colors (if not, we will decide for you)

I have shared colors particular to ITD podcast and I'd like "Rareisbeautiful" to emulate this but not the exact thing? So somewhere in the middle.

Please provide a google drive link to creatives you would want on the website (pictures, videos, etc)

I want existing assets on the website now but will share links to shot images once I get that sorted

I think a general theme with all the options above is a beautiful one pager and then a nice segue/redirection to other beautiful supporting pages, there's a common theme but also, each page has a vibe of it's own. I want this in terms of RAREISBEAUTIFUL being the house for ITD podcast, but ITD Podcast kind of having it's own brand and vibe going on.
